

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, During the summer and fall of 1889, six South Dakota cities conducted an intensive fight to be the one chosen for the location of the Capitol of South Dakota and, on October 1, 1889, Pierre won the battle; and,

WHEREAS, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Brookings and the surrounding area March 28; and,

WHEREAS, This unique program is called "Capital for a Day;" and,

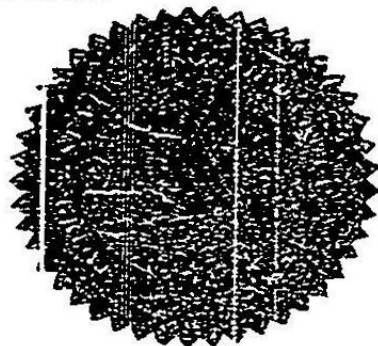

WHEREAS, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information and concerns among the Governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups and the general public can occur; and,

WHEREAS, It is hoped that Capital for a Day will aid in the working relationship between state government and the citizens of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 28, 1990, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Ninth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety
